

Department of the Navy: Making SPS a Success

DoN SPS User's Conference

April 21, 1998

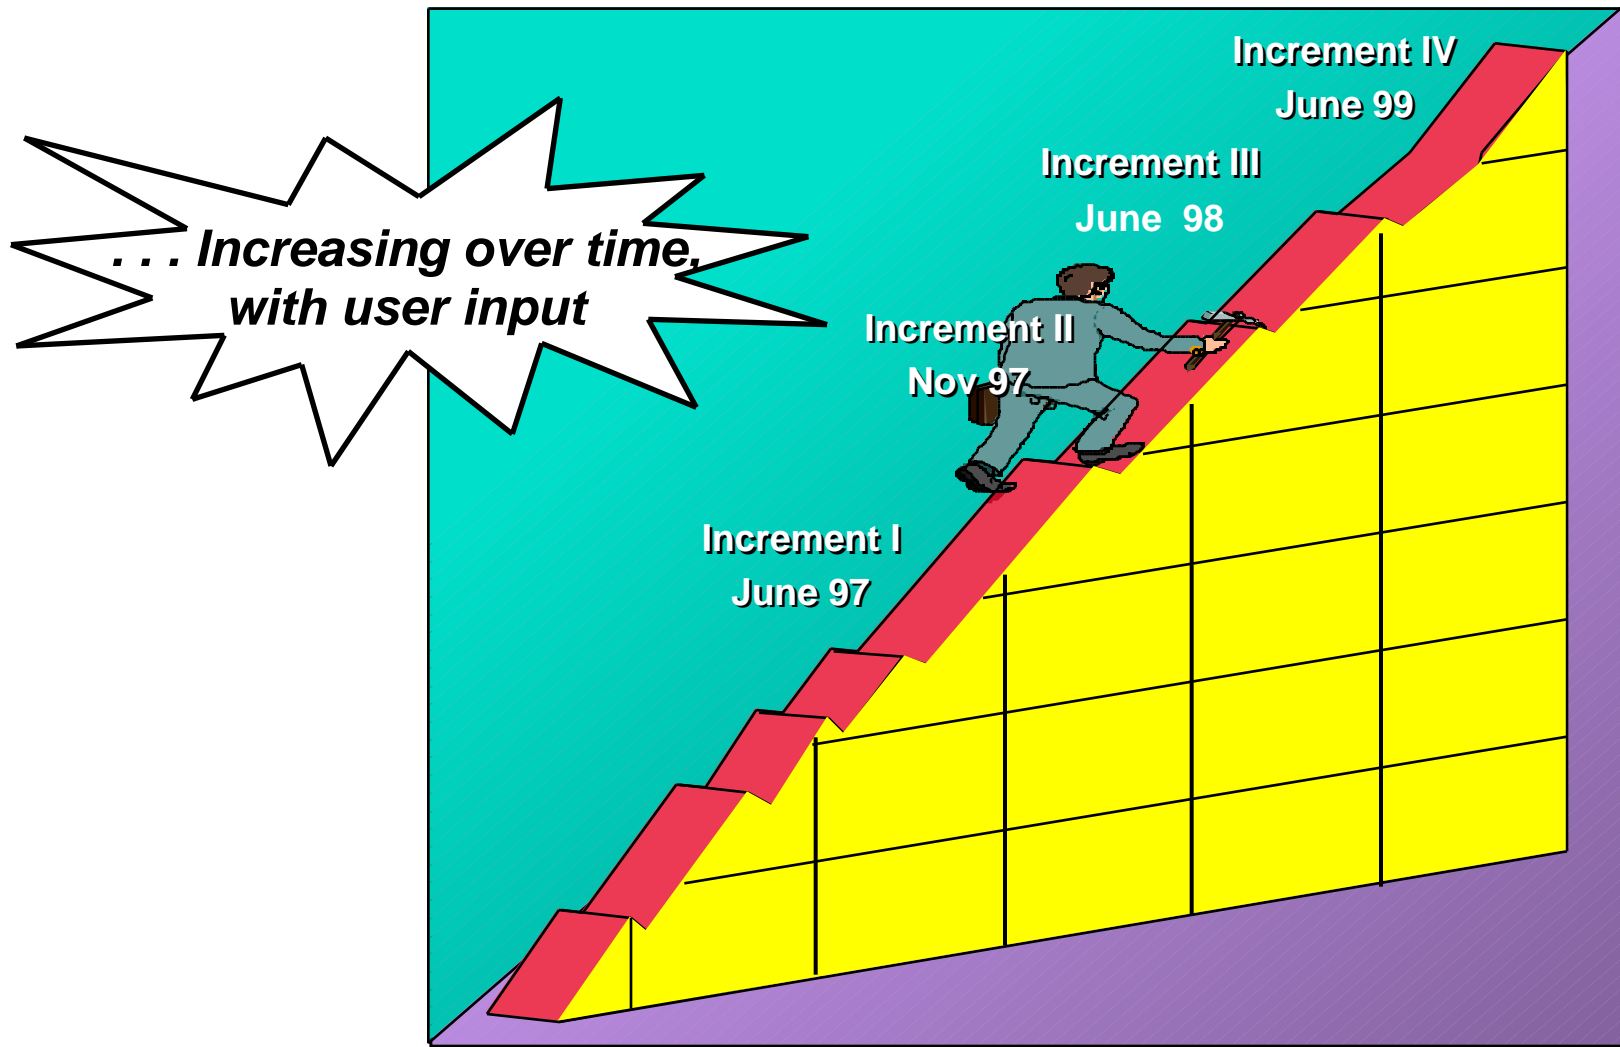

Seattle, Washington

Mr. Charles A. Mills, ASN(RD&A)

Presentation Overview

- The Big Picture
- Our Strategy
- Where We Are
- Where We're Headed
- Resources

SPS Functionality

Our Strategy:

MRM #2

“I am now asking that a plan be developed to move to a totally paper-free acquisition process.”

The Big Picture: Paperless in 2000

SPS

A diagram consisting of a red rectangle on the left and a yellow oval on the right. The red rectangle contains the text 'SPS' in white. The yellow oval contains the text 'EA21' in black. The red rectangle overlaps the left side of the yellow oval.

EA21

SPS Communications Resources

- CMO Web Site
www.abm.rda.hq.navy.mil/sps
- Phone Line
(703) 633-4090
- Electronic Help Desk
navysps@colybrand.com
- SPS List Server
- AMS/CMO Contacts

Questions?

Mr. Charles A. Mills, ASN(RD&A)
mills.charles@hq.navy.mil
(703) 602-2799

Summary

- SPS is central to the Navy's "paperless" strategy.
- Implementing SPS is about hard work, teamwork, and communications. Talk to us. Talk to users at other sites.
- Help is a phone call or e-mail away.

...Making SPS a Success

Susan Kuramoto, SSC-SD

Bill Jackson, PWC Norfolk

MGySgt Anthony C. Byrd

GySgt Isaiah B. Eddy

“Overcome, adjust, and adapt.”

Department of the Navy:
Making SPS a Success

Contacts

└ Navy CMO

- Long-term maintenance and support availability
- Assistance in site issue resolution

└ AMS

- Technical issues
- Questions about PD² software
- Clarification of site survey and ATP documentation
- Logistics for survey and installation